Sen. Bulloch visits with Georgia Young Farmers

ATLANTA – State Sen. John Bulloch (R-Ochlocknee) visited this week with members of the Georgia Young Farmers Association when they came to the state Capitol to meet with legislators. The visit was designed to let teachers and members of the association share concerns and voice their opinions regarding legislation affecting agriculture. Members had the opportunity to meet with Sen. Bulloch, chairman of the Agriculture and Consumer Affairs Committee, Representative Terry England (R-Auburn), chairman of the House Agriculture Committee and Tommy Irvin, commissioner of the Georgia Agriculture Department.
